Visit the Creamer's Field Migration Station!

Bring your friends and family to visit the Creamer's Field Migration Station this season!

It's a great way to learn about Alaska's birds and conservation, and you may even get to release a banded songbird. We are open mornings only in April, May, August, & September. Visit www.aksongbird.org or call (907) 888-2121 for the most updated information and weather updates.

Become a member of the Alaska Songbird Institute!

A donation of any amount will make you a member of ASI and a part of our grassroots effort to conserve Alaska's birds. Your membership supports our long-term research, as well as our integral, hands-on science education opportunities for kids, teens, and adults. Your membership lasts 12 months from the date of your donation. Fill out the form on the other side of this sheet, or give directly online at: www.aksongbird.org/donate
